

Subject: Child Development

Task 2

To recap Topic 1 –Pre-conceptual health and reproduction. Have a go at these quick fire questions.

- 1. How many can you answer with your prior learning?
- 2. Any questions you don't know use your revision guide or book.

What 3 factors influence whether you become parents?

What is genetic counselling and what expectant parents would need genetic counselling?

Can you explain and describe 3 different hereditary diseases?

What is pre-conception?

What 5 lifestyle changes can an expectant mother make?

What is spina bifida and how can you help prevent it?

What are 5 primary needs of a baby?

What is contraception?

What are the 3 barrier methods of contraception?

What are 2 advantages and disadvantages of the male condom?

What are the 2 types of the 'pill'?

What would make the pill ineffective?

What are 3 side effects of a female taking the pill?

What hormones does the combined pill contain?

What is NFP?

What are the advantages of NFP?

Where is a 'coil' fitted and how does it work?

Where is the cap placed?

How often is the 'contraceptive injection' given?

Revision Tasks

What is the function of the;

Ovaries

Fallopian tubes

What is the function of the;

Testes

Epididymis

Urethra

Vas deferens

What is 'semen'?

What are 3 signs of a woman being pregnant?

Some contraception thins the lining of the uterus – how does this prevent pregnancy?

What is ovulation? When does it happen?

What is fertilization?

How are identical and non-identical twins formed?

What is implantation?

Why would some couples have difficulty becoming pregnant?

When does the embryo become the foetus?