

How to Revise Week

Question-a-day and 20 minute Revision tasks
March & April 2025

Subject:
Statistics

MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY	SUNDAY	NOTES:
24th March Name and define three types of data	25th March The IQR contains how many % of the data?	26th March Name three advantages of doing an interview over a questionnaire	27th March "Use your judgement to select a sample that is representative of the population" – is what type of sampling?	28th March What is the random response method?	29th March What is the formula for standard deviation?	30th March Name the advantages and disadvantages of using the mean average
31st March What is standard deviation?	1st April If two events are mutually exclusive, what does that mean?	2nd April How would I work out the weighted mean?	3rd April Name the advantages and disadvantages of using the median average	4th April Would I plot the explanatory variable on the x or y axis?	5th April What is the formula for frequency density?	6th April What is bivariate data, and what graph would I plot it on?
7th April What are the four stages of doing a random sample?	8th April When drawing a cumulative frequency graph, what must I do?	9th April When would I use the weighted mean?	10th April Name and define three types of sampling methods	11th April If two events are independent, what does that mean?	12th April When comparing box plots, what three things would I discuss?	13th April Name the advantages and disadvantages of using the mode average
20 minute revision task OnMaths Task	20 minute revision task Corbett Maths Task	20 minute revision task A5 Revision notes Task	20 minute revision task Spring QLA task	20 minute revision task Revision Cards Task			