

Subject: RE

Task 2

Being able to write the 'Perfect Part D' comes with being able to plan your answer, making sure you can discuss two different points of view and evaluate and conclude whether it is a strong or a weak argument. Look at the three statements below...

Come up with some ideas for/against the statement and use the conclusion box for your evaluations. Remember, to use Sources of Wisdom and Authority (SOWA) and have at least two detailed points that you could then go on to write the answer.

"The best way to obtain salvation is to obey God's law"		"The crucifixion is more important to Christians than the resurrection"		"The best way to explain life is to say God created it"
Reasoned arguments to support the statement...	Reasoned arguments supporting a different view	Reasoned arguments to support the statement...	Reasoned arguments supporting a different view	Reasoned arguments to support the statement...	Reasoned arguments supporting a different view
