14-16 Programme

Environment & Countryside Skills

Level 1 Certificate in Skills for Professionals
Awarded by OCN London

The ‘Environment and Countryside Skills’ course will offer subjects and practical skills from a variety of Sparsholt’s land-based courses, including; environmental issues, conservation, woodland work, agriculture, horticulture, game and fish.

The aim of the programme is to offer a course for students who are interested in the environment and countryside, but are not sure what careers would be available or what working in the industry would be like.
